

Communications Intern: March for Life Education and Defense Fund

The March for Life Education and Defense Fund is a non-profit organization that coordinates the world's largest annual pro-life event. The organization is uniquely positioned to unite, equip, and mobilize pro-life Americans in the public square to end abortion. Each year in our nation's capital and increasingly in state capitals across the country, the March for Life unites and strengthens pro-life America to bring about a world where the beauty and dignity of every life is valued and protected. The organization is seeking a Communications intern. The position will report to the Digital and Creative Manager of the March for Life Education and Defense Fund.

As an intern for the March for Life Communications team, you will assist with gathering evergreen content for social media, working on the content calendar for optimal social media sharing, staying up to date with current events, minor graphic design work, potential for video editing/creation, replying to DM inquiries and maintaining consistent social presence on X, Facebook and Instagram. This position is a full-time internship with both remote and in-person work options.

Responsibilities:

- Create, edit and schedule social media posts for distribution via Facebook, Instagram, YouTube and X. The intern will be expected to track and utilize current social media trends in their work
- Conduct outreach for marcher stories
- Engage social media followers on all platforms
- Identify influencers to promote marches, campaigns and initiatives
- Draft tweets for President Jennie Bradley Lichter
- Monitor legislative happenings and media posts/messaging
- Update MFL website

Communications Intern Requirements and Qualifications:

- Pursuing a Bachelor's degree
- Interest and competency in communications
- Passion for building a culture of life

Please send cover letter, resume, name and contact information to info@marchforlife.org. Please include your social media handles in email.